

The Haining Family ... bringing you their own blend of "Front-Porch, Family-Style" music.

Winners of the 2004 Minnesota Bluegrass and Old-Time Music Festival Family Talent Contest, this family from western Minnesota has enjoyed making music together for many years.

Members include Mike (Dad) on mandolin, Peggy (Mom) on autoharp and vocals, and their four children, James on guitar and vocals, Ruth on fiddle and vocals, Pearl on harmonica, mountain dulcimer and vocals, and Grace on fiddle, recorder, dobro, bass, vocals and yodeling.

The Haining Family has performed at numerous churches, nursing homes, music festivals, threshing and pioneer shows, fund raisers, banquets and private events throughout the Midwest. Their unique blend of old-time gospel, bluegrass, fiddle tunes, yodeling, originals, instrumentals and vocal harmonies will warm your heart, put a smile on your face and start your toes a-tapping.

"They'll make you holler Wow!" -- Larry Seldon, 'Sotagrass